Dear Mr. Casey:

Your card to Mr. Wick transmitting a copy of your lecture before the Fortieth John Findley Green Foundation Lecture at Westminster College arrived during his absence from the office.

I know he would want me to send you a prompt acknowledgement of receipt. We will bring your letter to Mr. Wick's attention upon his return to the office on January 3.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Earle

Dear Charlie,

Now that you've read my April 13 speech let me send you my October 30 speech at Westminster College in a series in which Churchill made his Iron Curtain speech.

Yours,

William J. Casey
